

The Partner Realtor completes this at closing and submits it to their brokerage's commission or back office, authorizing the brokerage to include the Equity Guardians per-closing fee as a payee line on the brokerage's Commission Disbursement Authorization (CDA) for this transaction. If the Partner Realtor is the broker, or the brokerage directs the settlement agent to pay Equity Guardians directly, this form may be given to the settlement or title agent for the same purpose. The fee is paid from commission and is not a charge to the buyer or the seller.

3 Authorization

The Partner Realtor authorizes and requests the brokerage to include the following disbursement on the brokerage's CDA for this transaction, or, where applicable, directs the settlement agent to disburse it at closing, payable to Equity Guardians, LLC from the commission payable in this transaction and reflected on the settlement statement (Closing Disclosure or ALTA Settlement Statement).

Equity Guardians per-closing fee (USD)

Payee: Equity Guardians, LLC · 1 World Trade Center, 85th Floor, New York, NY 10007 · admin@equityguardians.com. Remittance details and IRS Form W-9 are provided on the Equity Guardians Payee Sheet (Form EG-PAYEE-US-v1.0), which the brokerage may keep on file for future closings.

3.1 Source of funds.

The fee is disbursed from the commission payable on this transaction and reduces the Partner Realtor's commission split accordingly. It is not a charge to the buyer or the seller.

3.2 Contingent on closing.

The fee is due only if the transaction closes and commission is paid. If the transaction does not close, or no commission is paid, no disbursement is due.

3.3 For services, not a referral.

The fee is compensation for services performed for the Partner Realtor and is not a fee for the referral of settlement-service business.

3.4 Broker authorization.

Because Texas commissions are payable to the sponsoring broker, this disbursement is authorized by the sponsoring broker below, or by the Sponsoring Broker Acknowledgment on file with Equity Guardians (Form EG-BROKER-ACK-TX-v1.0).
